

PRESIDENT: Senator Fowler, you asked to be recognized. The Clerk does have two prior motions that hit the desk before yours.

SENATOR FOWLER: Can I make the motion from here?

PRESIDENT: Make your motion Senator.

SENATOR FOWLER: OK, will my motion would be to accept Senator Goodrich's suggestion to strike the 72 hours and put in the seven (7) days. It would seem that there is . . . 72 hours may be a little too restrictive. There's certainly the arguments about weekends, about length of shipment, etc. would make that an unreasonable requirement. It would seem to me that a seven day period would certainly be reasonable for everyone to comply with and would help make this bill achieve its intent. So I'd make that motion.

We would like to move off of General File now, but the following motion has been made. Does that meet with your approval, Mr. Speaker? We do have some rather . . . the Clerk has some matters here that has to be taken care of before adjournment today.
